Compliance and Guidance Notes

The following notices apply to your letter based on your jurisdiction(s) and elections. They do not appear in the finished letter delivered to the employer; they are for your reference.

Equal-opportunity guidance. This template does not ask for and does not prompt disclosure of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, genetic information, or family medical history. Federal anti-discrimination statutes (Title VII, ADEA, ADA, GINA, and the Pregnancy Discrimination Act) protect applicants from discrimination based on these characteristics. Any voluntary disclosure you make is your choice alone.

At-will employment. Avoid language that could be construed as a binding durational commitment (e.g., promising to stay a minimum number of years). All U.S. states follow the at-will doctrine, and cover-letter language has in some cases been cited in wrongful-termination disputes.

Accuracy. All factual claims — degrees, job titles, years of experience, and metrics — must be accurate. Misrepresentation is grounds for rescission of an offer or termination after hire.

Electronic signatures. Under the federal ESIGN Act (15 U.S.C. §7001 et seq.), digital signatures on employment-application documents are legally equivalent to handwritten signatures.
