5. No Warranties — Quitclaim Only

This conveyance is a QUITCLAIM. Grantor makes no warranty or representation whatsoever regarding the title to the Property, the condition of the Property, the existence or absence of liens or encumbrances, or any other matter. Grantor conveys only such interest, if any, as Grantor may have in the Property as of the date of this deed. Specifically, Grantor disclaims any covenant of seisin, covenant against encumbrances, covenant of quiet enjoyment, and covenant of further assurance. If Grantor has no interest in the Property, Grantee receives no interest.

6. Compliance, Tax, and Advisory Matters

Transfer-tax exemption claimed. Grantor and Grantee claim an exemption from state and local documentary transfer tax based on the nature of this transfer. The specific statutory basis shall be recited on any required transfer-tax affidavit or companion form.

⚠ CARRYOVER BASIS vs STEPPED-UP BASIS. Property transferred by gift during life takes the donor's cost basis (IRC §1015). Property passing at death takes a stepped-up basis to FMV (IRC §1014). Consult a tax advisor.

⚠ TITLE INSURANCE GAP ADVISORY. A quitclaim carries no warranties and does not extend existing title insurance to Grantee. Grantee should obtain a new title search and owner's policy.

Execution

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Grantor has executed this QUITCLAIM DEED as of the date first written above.
